

Soar to New Heights

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

2017 Finish Line

To date we have raised just over $1.6M of our $2.4M campaign goal. The finish line is in sight for this effort to renew and expand the Ward Museum for the benefit of our community and generations to come. Please consider a gift today to help us reach our goal.

Campaign Projects by Priority

John A. Luetkemeyer Sr. and Thomas F. Mullan Jr. Legacy Center

2,200 waterfront addition to the Ward Museum, equipped as a 21st century learning center

Richard A. Henson Education Center

Renovation and equipping of classroom/workshop space, and a new kitchen for events

Sam Dyke Gateway to Outdoor Discovery

Landscaping and trail connections between the Legacy Center, Museum lobby and nature trails

Gallery Renovations

Including Ward Brothers Gallery and Championship Gallery

Grounds, Parking Lot and Roadside

Enhancements including new roadside marquee sign and entry gardens

Recent Success

Thanks to our many generous campaign donors we have been able to support many improvements in the past two years.

Sam Dyke Gateway to Outdoor Discovery construction (interior)

Henry Fleckenstein Decoy Study Gallery renovation

Treetops Gifts renovation

Victor Oristano Meeting Room construction

LaMay Gallery renovations

Collections Preservation

Make your gift today! Pledges or gifts of $500 or more received by May 1, 2017 will be included on the Atrium Lobby Campaign Wall.

Naming level opportunities are still available, contact Lora Bottinelli Executive Director at 410-742-4988 x111.

Make a gift online at www.wardmuseum.org or mail your pledge or gift using the enclosed remit card.

